

Edgar CACHE Award Recipient

Scott Fogler

Congratulations to Scott Fogler, a former CACHE Trustee, who received a recognition by ASEE ChE Division.

The Thomas and Donna Edgar CACHE Award for Excellence in Chemical Engineering Education is sponsored by the CACHE Corporation and is presented for significant contributions in the development of computer aids for chemical engineering education. The award consists of an honorarium, a commemorative plaque, and one ticket to the Chemical Engineering Division Banquet of the ASEE Annual Conference, where the award will be presented.

H. Scott Fogler is the Ame and Catherine Vennema Professor of Chemical Engineering and the Arthur F. Thurnau Professor at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and was the 2009 President of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers. He received his B.S. from the University of Illinois and his M.S. and Ph.D. from the University of Colorado.

Professor Scott Fogler received a Doctor Honoris Causa from the Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Spain in April 2016, and earned a Diploma in 1985 from the New Orleans School of Cooking. He enjoys teaching undergraduate and graduate chemical reaction engineering courses, and a graduate-level course on strategies for creative problem solving.
